Los Gatos Creek offers recreation potential

Development of the Los Gatos Creek banks into a recreational area with bike and hiking trails got a boost recently when the City Council approved an allocation of $24,500 from federal revenue-sharing funds for the creekside project.

The Youth Advisory Commission has also recommended to the City Council that off-street bike trails be constructed by the city along the creek. The youth group has also suggested that the city cooperate with adjoining cities in the development of bike routes on streets.

The recreational potential of the Los Gatos Creek area has long been recognized, but aside from a few tree-planting, clean-up days in which the citizens participated, very little improvement has been made over the years either esthetically or recreationally.

REVENUE-SHARING ALLOCATION OF $16,000

Para-medic program receives City Council approval for next year

One of the top priority items recommended by the Citizens Advisory Goals Committee, the development of a para-medic program, administered by the Fire Department, has already received the approval of the City Council and $16,000 will be allocated in next year's budget to finance the program.

Federal revenue-sharing funds will be used to purchase the para-medic equipment and a public hearing on the allocation, as required by law, will take place on Monday, July 9.

The para-medic program was just one of 43 recommendations made by the goals committee to the City Council in the report that was submitted last week.

The reports were summarized at the city council budget study session last Wednesday by Bob Peck, vice-chairman of the goals committee assisted by Steve Goodman, Dick Hardy and Dan Knowles, chairmen of the three main sub-committees.

On Thursday, the members of the goals steering committee were guests at the Chamber of Commerce monthly luncheon meeting when a summary was again presented by Peck, Knowles and Goodman with Mrs. Betty Pack taking the place of Hardy.

A 20-page booklet was also prepared and distributed by the goals committee listing the goals on a priority basis that had been determined by the four-month study sessions.

Mayor Dean Chamberlin commended the members of the committee for their diligent efforts and emphasized that some of the goals recommended will be approved this year (the para-medic program is one) while others, he added, will not be and he felt the committee members would understand why.

Other top priority items include the completion of the downtown loop system and the implementation of the "911" emergency dial telephone system and the development of Los Gatos Creek for recreational uses.

Prior to the submission of the goals committee report, the City Council by a majority vote had earmarked $24,500 of federal revenue-sharing funds for the creek development.

In addition to the goals committee giving a high priority to the development of Los Gatos Creek, the Youth Advisory Commission this week gave an added impetus to the creek development by recommending to the City Council that off-street bike trails be constructed by the city along the creek. The goals committee also has suggested bike trails be developed.

The construction of a community meeting room at the library, estimated to cost $20,000 also received a boost from the goals people under the capital improvement cost items.

Under non-capital improvement cost items, the committee gave top billing for a recommended study for the city's role in providing social and human relations services.

LOW BID HITS $576,878 FOR HAMILTON AVENUE

Traffic signal cost boosts street project

When a contractor submits a bid that is 10 times more than the engineer's estimate for a job, there is bound to be some checking and rechecking of figures.

Low bid submitted for widening Hamilton Avenue from Winchester to Highway 17, the largest street improvement project in this city's history, was $576,257.30, the City Council learned Monday night.

However, awarding the contract for the job was deferred until Friday, June 29, to allow Bill Wren, public works director, time to check out the huge disparity in one phase of the mammoth project, traffic signalization.

The Council also wants to be sure there will be no problem with the other agencies involved in funding the joint project.

The Council will meet in a special session at 11:30 a.m. Friday to take action on the bids. One of the requirements is that the contract must be awarded by July 1.

Wren explained that the contract was in two sections. The bidding included the off-ramp construction and signalization at Hamilton and Highway 17 to be paid for by the state.

Wren said that the low bid of $576,257.30, of the four submitted was about six per cent over the engineer's estimate of $541,455.25. However, he emphasized, almost all the "overage" was centered on one phase, traffic signalization.

As a case in point, Wren indicated that his department had estimated that the remodeling of the present signalization at Hamilton and Central at $5000.

The bid came in at $50,000!

Low bidder for the project was Freeman-Sondgroth with $576,257.30. The high bid of the four submitted was $617,107.50. Wren added that the signalization is let to a subcontractor.

The state portion of the bid came to $88,894 and the

BEFORE FINAL ADOPTION IN AUGUST

Changes to take place in city's preliminary budget

Campbell's preliminary budget of $4,447,139 for the 1973-74 fiscal year was approved unanimously by the City Council on Monday night. But the $4.4 million job was not too realistic.

The City Council has indicated that before the final budget is approved in August, when the tax rate will be set, there will be many changes and modifications in the city's fiscal document.

Deleted from the budget that won approval Monday night, following three prior study sessions, were capital improvement projects totalling more than $450,000.

With few exceptions the budget does not include any of the projects recommended by the goals committee or income and outgo of federal revenue sharing funds that will exceed $400,000.

Before the final budget is adopted, it is expected that many of the capital improvement projects will be put back in; some of the goals programs will be funded and action will be taken in revenue-sharing field.

A number of changes were made in the budget as recommended by City Manager Bob Stephens.

The city manager has recommended the Chamber of Commerce allocation remain at $10,000 for the fiscal year. The Council, however, upped the figure to $12,000 upon the request of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Council also added one officer and two clerks in the police department over the city manager's recommendation and one more fireman.

However, the major part of the pay for the additions will come from the Public Employee Program (PEP).

City Manager Stephens explained that he did not oppose the additional personnel, and they could be justified.

The development of Campbell's fast-growing park program will also come under close scrutiny of the Council during the next few weeks, as well as other points emphasized in the goals committee report.

On July 9, the Council will hold a public hearing, as required on the allocation of $16,000 from revenue-sharing funds for the para-medic program.

The councilmen indicated Monday that the entire park program had to be examined. On Monday night, they approved the policy that specified that city labor totalling 1,813 hours that had been expended on the neighborhood parks at the schools would not be charged against the city's $10,000 allocation for each park. Bill Wren, public works director, said that the city charge was $8.25 per hour for such work.

Councilman Bill Podgorsek suggested that a new policy be formulated that would allocate money for parks to the various home and school clubs on a matching basis. Mayor Dean Chamberlin opposed studying the idea until it was determined where the money was coming from. The other councilmen, however, felt the subject should be pursued and scheduled a meeting for a study session with the Parks and Recreation Commission on Wednesday, July 11.

CITY COUNCIL ACTION(?)

Very moving affair--sort of

It took at least seven motions before there was any action on the sign request of Gold Key Furniture at the City Council meeting Monday.

After several abortive starts, the motion squeeked by on a 3-2 count, denying Gold Key its sign for the side of the building.

The Planning Commission had approved a sign for the side of the building, provided the letters of Gold Key were reduced to six feet; the word "furniture" deleted and the sign to be removed if the adjacent property was developed.

Twice a motion by Councilman Rusty Hammer to approve this recommendation failed on a 3-2 vote and twice a motion by Councilman Ralph Doetsch to put "furniture" back in failed by a 3-2 count. A motion to continue also went down.

The same fate befell a motion by Councilman Bill Podgorsek to deny the sign.

Finally after all possible combinations, as well as the councilmen, appeared exhausted, Hammer indicated he might sign with the denial side. Quick as a bunny Councilman Norm Paul made the motion; Podgorsek seconded it. With Hammer's vote they were home free.

And as a result, Gold Key won't have a sign.

PLANNING COMMISSION MAY LEARN

Could zone change lead to Campbell's first motel?

A motel for Campbell?

That Campbell finally might get a motel, long a pet project of former Mayor Bill Podgorsek (he was awarded a miniature model motel at the Chamber of Commerce dinner), looms as a possibility because of an item on the Planning Commission agenda for next Monday, July 2.

Surber-Greenley has requested a zone change from M-1-S (industrial) to P-D (planned development) for property at 1210 and 1228 Camden Ave. According to the request, a 50-unit motel is planned for the site. The parcels listed include Carrow's restaurant.

Other items on the agenda next Monday, include another go at the request of Bell Savings and Loan to convert the rotating pole sign at Freddie's Liquors at San Tomas Road and Campbell Ave., into a sign for the savings and loan firm which purchased Freddie's

Bell Savings is leasing part of the building back to Freddie's and maintains that only the wording on the sign is being changed.

The Planning Commission denied the request but on appeal the Council bucked the matter back for more study.

Darrell Berg is requesting approval of plans for an office building at 1262 E. Hamilton and Milton Bockman is seeking approval of plans for an industrial building at 1261 Dell.

The request of the West Valley Hiking Club for a use permit to operate an office warehouse at 409 E. Hamilton will be before the Commission again. It was continued from a previous meeting.

Also on the agenda is the continued hearing on the request of Gold Seal Realty to convert a residence into an office. City Attorney Bob Dempster is expected to submit his opinion on variances at the meeting as requested by the commissioners.

Sherrel Kirk has submitted plans for an industrial building at 20-28 Railway Ave., and another public hearing is scheduled on the general plan-zoning conformity. The area involved is north of Campbell between Winchester and the freeway.

IT WAS NUMBER 50---Perry Egurrola (right) was the fiftieth student placed in a job this summer by the Youth Employment Service, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Debbie Havens (left). Perry was employed by Mrs. John Adams, of 402 Kings Court.

The YES director reports that students have been placed in office jobs, yard work, restaurant work, housekeeping, child care, delivering, sales and construction.

The YES program got a big boost this week when the City of Campbell allocated $10,000 to employ 14 youths during the summer in various city departments.

SUMMER WORK FOR TEENAGERS

City allocates $10,000 for jobs

To the tune of $10,000, the City of Campbell is easing the unemployment problem of local teenagers for the summer months.

An allocation of $10,000 has been approved by the City Council for the employment during July and August of 14 youths in city departments, according to Kay Green, city personnel director.

Mrs. Green said that the employment of the young people will be coordinated through the Youth Employment Service (YES), a Chamber of Commerce sponsored project, under the direction of Debbie Havens.

Most of the youths employed will be placed in the parks and maintenance divisions of the public works department.

Mrs. Green explains that both high school juniors and seniors will be considered for employment.

The youths must be residents of the City of Campbell and Mrs. Green also emphasized that the needs of the applicant will be taken into consideration in the employment of the young people.

Those interested in the jobs should first contact Debbie Havens (378-1666) at the YES office. Mrs. Green and the department heads will interview those who have been sent to the city hall by YES.

PHONE PAYMENTS

Beginning July 1, Campbell Drugs and Pharmacy will accept phone service payments of Pacific Telephone subscribers, according to Campbell phone manager, Alvin Jackson.

Campbell Drugs, 1739 Winchester Blvd., replaces Aero Pharmacy in this service.

BY 4-1 VOTE

Council rejects rezoning appeal of Ira Kirkorian

Despite an ardent plea by Ira Kirkorian, long-time local developer and builder, the City Council by a 4-1 vote on Monday night, rejected Kirkorian's appeal of a Planning Commission ruling denying a zone change on 2.3 acre parcel at 1545 and 1581 Bucknall Road on which apartments are planned.

Kirkorian had asked that the zone be changed from the present R-3-S to P-D (planned development). Under the new density requirements, 63 units would be the maximum number allowed on the parcel.

Kirkorian was seeking approval of 71 units under the P-D banner.

The planning commissioners, in turning down the zone change request, emphasized that they felt the intent of the P-D zoning was not to circumvent other zoning.

The City Council by the 4-1 vote upheld the Planning Commission decision with Councilman Ralph Doetsch casting the negative vote.

In his plea before the Council, Kirkorian traced the development of his construction in the area, including the Kirkwood Plaza, one of the most successful shopping centers in the county. He emphasized that he would not build anything that was detrimental to the community.

He pointed out that the parcel in question was originally zoned commercial and that it had been rezoned for apartments at his request. Kirkorian emphasized that a 71-unit apartment complex for the property had originally been approved by the city but the time of the approval had expired before financing had become available.

He claimed he was not aware that the city had lowered its density requirements and maintained that the same plans with 71 units had been approved previously and thus should be approved again. He said it would not be economically feasible to decrease the number of units.

Four councilmen, Mayor Dean Chamberlin, Norm Paul, Rusty Hammer and Bill Podgorsek, however, indicated that they felt it was necessary to follow the density requirements and turned down the appeal.

Fire Chief issues fireworks warning

(The second of a series on Fire Prevention and Fire Safety by the Campbell Fire Department)

Although July Fourth is traditionally a time of celebration and relaxation for most Americans, the average firefighter looks forward to the season with about as much relish as he would a case of the flu.

The high incidence of fires and injuries attributed to the use of both legal and illegal fireworks makes most firefighters question the sanity of even the supposedly "safe and sane" fireworks on sale in most urban communities.

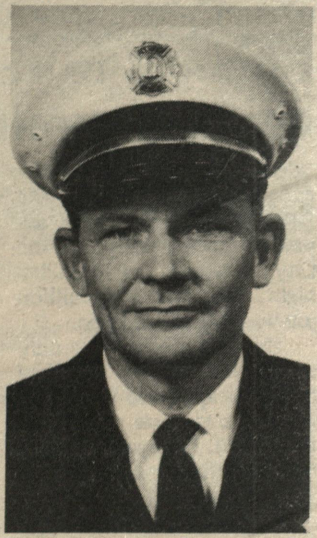
WARNING

Campbell Fire Chief Gene Borden issued a stern warning to all Campbell residents that if they intend to use fireworks, they had better be of the legal safe and sane variety. The use of firecrackers, cherry bombs, rockets or any type of flying or exploding device is strictly illegal, and punishable by a $500 fine and a jail sentence. Chief Borden stressed the fact that ANYONE found selling, using, or in possession of any illegal fireworks in the City of Campbell will be prosecuted.

FIRES

In explaining the Fire Department's uncompromising position on illegal fireworks, Borden pointed to several serious fires that have already occurred in the area, and numerous injuries and mishaps which yearly occur as a result of such illegal devices.

According to Borden, anyone wishing to turn in illegal fireworks may do so (no questions asked) at either the Fire Department or the Police Department. In addition, anyone desiring information as to the legality of any device may contact the Fire Prevention Bureau.



GENE BORDEN

SUGGESTIONS

For those who plan to use fireworks during the holiday, the Fire Chief offered the following suggestions:

Never allow children, any age, to use fireworks except in the presence of an adult. Parents might do well to remember that they are legally responsible for any damage or injury resulting from their children's use of legal or illegal fireworks.

Always use fireworks in a safe area, never near dry grass, weeds, or buildings.

Never hold fireworks in the hand (other than sparklers) and NEVER throw ANY kind of device.

Be careful of discarded matches after lighting fireworks; be cautious in their disposal.

Never try to relight a fireworks fuse if you have lighted it previously and it has gone out.

Don't touch fireworks after they are discharged; some remain very hot for a very long period of time.

NEVER use any device other than approved safe and sane fireworks (if in doubt--call the Fire Department). All approved fireworks should exhibit the State Fire Marshal's seal of approval.

Call the Fire Department immediately if any fire or injury results from fireworks. If a fire is started from fireworks, call the Fire Department even if the fire is extinguished.

The Fire Chief's final advice for the upcoming Fourth of July is a word to those parents who might be considering allowing their children to use fireworks for the first time...DON'T!

OFFICE THEFT

Police are investigating a series of burglaries last week in which two doctors offices and a medical laboratory were broken into and a third office showed signs of forced entry.

Only a small amount of cash, and a transistor radio were found missing. Burglarized were the Hamilton Medical Laboratory, and offices of Dr. Michael Stein and Dr. Richard Sogg. Entry was tried at the office of Dr. Edward Cahn but was unsuccessful, according to reports.

ROCK HURLER

A young San Jose man suffered a broken nose and severe facial lacerations after being struck by a six pound rock, allegedly hurled by a Campbell youth.

According to police reports, the man was driving along San Tomas Aquino Road, near Hacienda Avenue when he first encountered the vehicle containing three juveniles.

After an argument, according to reports, a large paint can was thrown at him, which he ducked, only to be struck in the face by the huge rock.

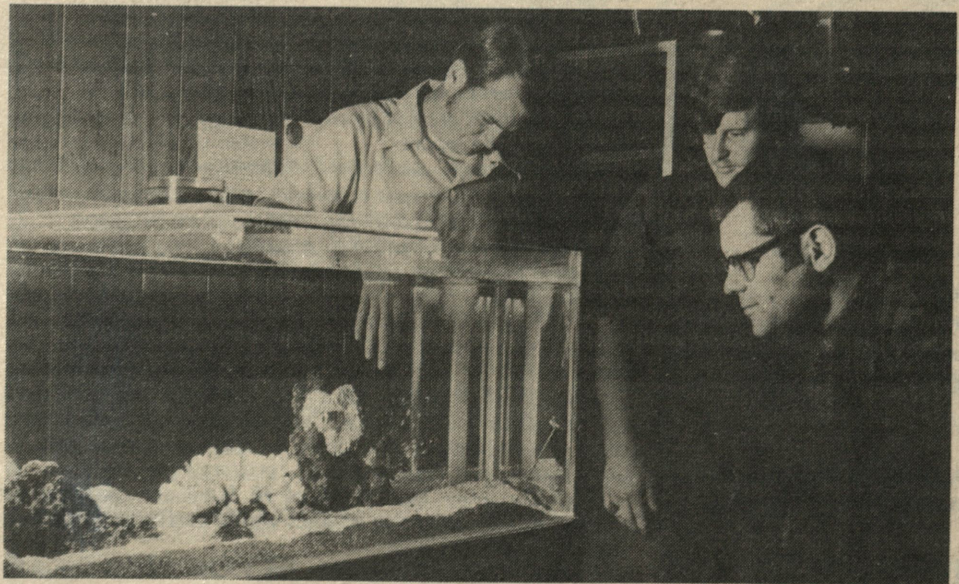
Arrested a short time later was a 14-year-old Campbell youth. He is being held at Juvenile Hall.

JUNE 27:

On this date in 1950, the first enemy plane shot down in the Korean War, a Russian "Yak," was destroyed by 1st Lt. William Hudson, USAF, flying an F-82.

Aftermath of fire crackers

Over 2,000 gallons of water were needed to bring the grass fire under control at 1825 S. Bascom Ave., last week. According to reports, youngsters were spotted in the large field playing with fire crackers shortly before the blaze. Three Campbell Fire Department engines and the rescue unit were dispatched to the scene shortly after 4 p.m. The fire was brought under control by 6:45 that evening. In addition to regular fire department personnel, two volunteer firemen and one Explorer Scout helped in the operation.



A GIFT--Red Sea fish are on public display at West Valley College's Saratoga campus biology department. Here biology instructors Barron Haley, left, and Greig Rose, right, and student Randy Williams study four of the fish housed there. Haley points to the poisonous turkey fish, the clown fish can be discerned hiding in the white, threadlike sea anemone to the left, while a starfish crawls over the coral. The fish were a gift from the people of Eilat, Israel, in celebration of that country's 25th anniversary.

The "Red Sea" is opened at College

The Red Sea has opened up for biologists at West Valley College.

The college's Saratoga campus biology department has become the new home for a number of unusual coral fish, whose natural habitat is the Red Sea.

The fish were sent to the San Jose Jewish Community Center by the people of Eilat, Israel, in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the birth of Israel. But after the fish arrived, it wasn't known where they could be kept.

VOLUNTEER

A West Valley College student volunteered the college's aquarium. Fred Sonenberg, director of the Jewish Community Center, then sent them to the college.

According to Barron Haley and Greig Rose, biology instructors at the college, nearly half the fish were dead on arrival and some of the others had to be nursed back to health.

They credit Bart Fenolio, owner of the Dolphin Aquarium in Campbell, with saving some of the surviving fish. Haley and Rose both noted that losing half of the fish is not unusual, since it is difficult to simulate all the conditions of the Red Sea during the 36-hour flight from Israel.

AQUARIUM

The aquarium, which houses a turkey fish, trigger fish, clown fish, an unidentified gold fish, sea anemone, starfish, and sea lily crinoid.

The fish are being cared for by two biology students, Steve Cornes and Randy Williams, who feed the fish and clean the aquarium each day.

Haley and Rose explained that it is difficult to simulate the warm water, coral reef, marine environment found in the Red Sea, but that most of the fish have adapted well to their aquarium environment.

Trustees review objections to assessment district

West Valley College trustees Thursday evening responded to four modifications of its proposed assessment district which were made June 20 by members of the Saratoga city council.

The city council approved formation of the assessment district and directed Kenneth Jones, bonding attorney, to initiate court validation action (to determine that formation of the assessment district is legal).

EXCEPTIONS

Thursday evening Dr. Leroy Lowery, assistant superintendent for finance, outlined four exceptions the council took to the proposed district: switching of the hockey field with parking lot number three, directly across from residents of the Short Hill Court area, who objected to the parking lot; elimination of the 27-parking-stall lot at the southwest corner of the campus, a lot located near Fruitvale Avenue and the tennis courts; inclusion of an equestrian trail on the north, east and south sides of the campus; and provide circulation via a perimeter road from Fruitvale lots to parking lot number 4, located on the southwest corner of the campus.

FIRM

Board members were firm in their stand that further changes in the assessment district, most notably the switching of the hockey field with parking lot number 3 across from Short Hill Court, would mean increased costs to residents of the district. Foster Lopes said, "we have more than compromised our position at the expense of the taxpayers." Lopes was referring to the fact that trustees had already agreed to move the warehouse-maintenance building from its original site across from Short Hill Court to the interior of the campus, at an increased cost of some $59,000. Switching the hockey field with the parking lot would mean an additional cost of $57,000.

ASSET

Board member Robert Sorensen noted, "we have had good relations with Saratoga. We have worked together to make it (the college campus) a pleasing asset to Saratoga."

Supt. James P. Hardy and Lowery explained that elimination of the 27-parking-stall lot would be no problem, since this was a low priority parking area. They did note, however, that such elimination would mean the district would fall below its stated guide of providing .6 parking stall for each student.

They also explained that inclusion of an equestrian trail at the present time is not feasible, since many areas of the campus are already landscaped.

CONCERN

Supt. Hardy noted that the councilmen's concerns that students were using Fruitvale Avenue to travel to parking lots around the campus would be eliminated when all parking facilities are built. Students currently park illegally near the physical education and swimming pool area, he explained. Included in the assessment district is a plan to fence the campus, forcing students to park on school owned parking lots, and not on neighbor's grounds.

In other action Thursday evening the governing board:

Authorized a number of new courses for the fall semester, including an 11-unit, 300-hour course to train paramedical personnel in providing initial care for medical emergencies.

Approved continuation of the supervision - management center for 1973-74.

Adopted formal policy regarding the 6.5 per cent across the board increase in salaries granted to certificated and classified employees at its last meeting.

Approved a contract with Wilbur Smith & Associates, Inc., for traffic consultation on the Mission College site in Santa Clara.

Approved continuation of discipline representatives in the business, humanities-fine arts, language arts, science-math, and social science areas, and new coordinator posts in the engineering-technology, business and physical education divisions.

Adjourned the meeting in memory of Donald Hedrick, son of Dr. and Mrs. Duane Hedrick of Los Gatos. Young Hedrick was killed June 16 in a traffic accident. His mother, Mrs. Betty Hedrick, is a registeredn nurse and coordinator of West Valley College's nursing program.

OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhus

THAT FRUSTRATING BOTTLENECK THAT HAS EXisted for so many years on "101" through Morgan Hill and Gilroy has virtually been eliminated with the opening of the portion of the freeway that by-passes the town.

We understand that the citizens of Morgan Hill are as pleased with the by-pass as those motorists who (especially on Sunday) have been hung up in the past by the slow-moving bumper-to-bumper signal-to-signal crawl through the town.

In the so-called good old days, civic leaders in small towns campaigned to have the main routes of travel go right down the main drags of their burgs.

But not any more.

People want to have easy access to freeways and expressways. But they don't want 'em by their doors.

That thinking, of course, is not much different than in many other situations that involve residents of any community.

People concede that hospitals, cemeteries, schools, churches, etc., are integral parts of any community.

But next door, please.

Of course, the problem becomes quite complicated when it is finally recognized that those vital institutions must go next door to someone.

But that really wasn't what we started to chit-chat about.

TRAFFIC PAST AND PRESENT IN MORGAN HILL WAS really the subject we had in mind when we were side-tracked on these other points.

For example, one would think at first glance that operators of service stations in Morgan Hill would have been opposed to the by-passing of the town.

But the opposite viewpoint was expressed in one instance in which a gas station owner was interviewed.

Admitting first, of course, that the current gasoline shortage may have given him a different perspective, one service station operator submitted that he thought the "by-pass" was the greatest thing that had happened to the town in ages.

And he liked it from his own personal and business point of view.

He pointed out that he could now offer his home-town customers better service and, in addition, he could cross the street in comparative safety.

He added that he had finally become acquainted with the operator of the business across the street.

The guy had been there for the last eight years.

DURING THE YEARS THAT MORGAN HILL HAD ITS curb-to-curb, bumper-to-bumper, signal-to-signal traffic crawl, the little city built up another reputation.

The town was noted, whether justified or not, as a spot where unwarry motorists, who were not speedometer-minded, could get in deep, deep trouble with the gendarmes on motorcycles or in patrol cars.

A lot of us can testify to that, much to our chagrin.

Incidentally, former Mayor Bill Podgorsek can join the same club based on a recent experience he had in Morgan Hill on his way home from the recent city employee picnic at Uvas Meadows.

Bill last year served as chairman of the mayors' committee of the Inter-City Council, and is well acquainted with the Morgan Hill city fathers (and mothers because the mayor of Morgan Hill was a gal last year).

He plans, as an "alumni" to attend the next mayors' committee meeting when he will present a duplicate of the speeding ticket he received, (suitably framed, of course) to the Morgan Hill mayor.

We imagine Bill in his presentation will offer sympathy(?) for the loss(?) incomewise that Morgan Hill is suffering now that the by-pass is opened.

MORGAN HILL POLICE WERE WRONGFULLY BLAMed at first for another stop that was made on the same day that former Mayor Podgorsek was booked for allegedly scooting too fast through town.

Whereas it was the San Jose cops who were involved.

(The San Jose city limits ridiculously take in a narrow strip down the highway right to the edge of Morgan Hill.)

The stop involved a City of Campbell employee who was halted by the cops on the basis that his pickup truck was overloaded. The pickup was packed with pots and pans, etc. and leftover grub from the city employees' picnic.

The San Jose police were adamant about allowing the pickup to proceed without unloading some of the stuff first.

So some of the stuff was unloaded on the side of the road.

But when they returned after delivering the lightened load, it had disappeared.

However, it all worked out for the best, sort of.

Some friendly operators of a restaurant close by had picked up the equipment for safekeeping.

So the stuff was re-loaded on the pickup.

The grateful Campbell people gave the food that was left to the restaurant people.

We are sure there must be a moral to this some place.

We will let you know, if we find it.

APROPOS OF THE HASSLE CONCERNING PROPERTY assessments and market values, etc., that we recently stirred up locally to some extent, we note that the department of Social Welfare last week issued a news release from Sacramento pertaining to "market value."

According to the release: "When the law says market value, it means market value, the Second District Court of Appeal ruled in a major welfare case in Los Angeles."

We realize that the ruling had nothing to do with the assessor's full cash value that is listed on the postcard property owners receive.

However, the ruling bothers us to some degree, in a vague sort of way.

In effect the court ruled that the market value of personal property, as specified in the Welfare Reform Act of 1971 applied only to the equity the recipient owned in the goods.

Under the court's interpretation, a person could accumulate all the property he wanted and still remain on public assistance (welfare), as long as he kept the property heavily encumbered.

Fortunately, for our blood pressure, the ruling had an addendum which specified that when the "additional property reaches a level where it provides to the welfare recipient a standard of living that may exceed that enjoyed by most of the nonwelfare population of the state, the right to tax-subsidized assistance terminates."

Without some sort of a limit on this encumbering thing, we could foresee another serious welfare problem in the making.

It seems to us there have been enough already.

Problems, that is.

A RECENT REPORT PREPARED BY THE INSTITUTE for Business and Economic Research at San Jose State University, shows that apartment vacancies in Santa Clara County have dropped to 6.4%.

Apartment vacancies in 1971 totalled 13%–a jump from two per cent in 1969 indicating that dramatic changes in the apartment market are possible in a short period of time.

The vacancies are not spread evenly over the entire county, according to the report.

While Campbell, Santa Clara, Cupertino and San Jose have showed marked increases in vacancy rates, Sunnyvale jumped from 5.3% in 1972 to 9.3% this year.

We are not sure what this all means.

But we thought we would pass it on for what is was worth.

If anything.

ANOTHER TRIVIA NOTE THAT WE FOUND CACHED in the manila folder that we have assigned for "out-on-the-limb" possibilities, is that single vehicle accidents far exceed any other type of fatal accident.

Statistics show that 39.7% of all fatals are single-vehicle crashes, usually involving vehicles which overturned or struck a fixed object.

Broadside accidents account for 17.2% and head-on-collisions represent 10.5% and rear-enders, 7.1%.

The California Highway Patrol in releasing the figures noted that the majority of single vehicle accidents are caused by excessive speed, leading to loss of control or misjudgment of the roadway situation.

We think the reason we kept this information in our note file was that it is important to realize that just looking out for the "other driver" will not assure accident-free driving.

More than one-third of the time no other driver is involved.

Sort of shakes you, doesn't it?

AND WHERE ELSE COULD YOU GET THE STARTLING information that after years of slumping sales, the California dairy industry had an upswing in sales in 1972 and the sales have continued to increase in 1973.

The dairy industry has really campaigned to get people to drink milk, bringing in movie stars and athletes in the TV commercials, etc.

But what we thought was significant about the dairy industry in this state is that the number of dairymen has shrunk from 19,000 in 1952 to 3,830 in 1972. It now takes more than 10 billion pounds of milk to feed the 20 million Californians.

And in 1972, Californians consumed an average of 127.8 quarts of Class I milk, four more quarts than in 1971.

We recognize that many of you couldn't care less.

But you see we did have that note in our file.

And now we don't

Editorial

Creek development

Over the years The Campbell Press has urged editorially that the Los Gatos Creek area along Highway 17 be landscaped and developed into a recreational area with hiking and bike trails, etc.

The creek area not only has a recreational potential, because of its location along the busy freeway, it is also the "show window" for the community.

And as a "show window" it leaves very much to be desired.

Over the years at various times there have been creekside clean-up tree planting events in which the citizens participated. These events were worthwhile, both from a citizen involvement point of view as well as aesthetic accomplishment.

However, the clean-up/tree-planting projects made only a small dent in the overall problem. It is well established that it will take the cooperation of all the governmental agencies involved, (flood control, county, Campbell, Los Gatos) if the creek area is developed to its potential.

Although all the agencies have the same common denominator (i.e., the taxpaying public), very little has been accomplished cooperatively in the development of the creek area.

In our opinion, the appearance has actually deteriorated through the channel realignment that was undertaken by the flood control people.

We think it is sad that something has not been done to improve the conditions along the creek.

We admit that there has been a committee made up of representatives from the various public agencies that has attempted to get things started but so far there has been no visible evidence that the group has made any headway.

However, recently there has been an indication that the City of Campbell may "do something" on its own.

The City Council has stipulated that $24,500 of federal revenue-sharing funds will be used for Los Gatos Creek development.

We realize that such an allocation will not transform the creekside into a park overnight.

However, it is a start in the right direction and we commend the City Council for this action.

Coincidentally, the Youth Advisory Commission has recommended to the City Council that the City of Campbell undertake the planning and construction of an off-street bicycle route on the banks of Los Gatos Creek.

We are in the young people's corner in this recommendation and agree wholeheartedly with the sentiment expressed in the Youth Commission's letter to the City Council:

"Because of the current strong public sentiment for facilities of this type (bike trails), and because as members of the Youth Commission we feel these facilities are needed in Campbell, we feel that action in this area should be delayed no further."

Winning composers and authors announced

The Santa Clara County Branch of the Music Teachers' Assn. of California announced twelve statewide composition winners in this year's annual Composers and Authors competition.

The winners were: Kathryn Killmeyer, student of Kathleen Bergeron; Victoria Destin, Joan Brobst, Scott Silveira, students of Clarice Lincoln; Frankie Laglina, student of Marian Ritchie; Julie Belotti, Cindy Black, Catherine Wright, Judy Huboi, Pamela Stegemeyer, Kathleen Christensen, students of Sue Shannon; and Leslie Hoenecke, student of Barbara Warner.

Kathleen Christensen won the Special Achievement honor for the best student composition of the state competition.

These winners will perform their winning compositions this summer in Asilomar at the annual MTAC convention on July 9.

BENEFIT CONCERT

A benefit concert for the chaplaincy ministries at the Santa Clara County jail and juvenile institutions will be presented Saturday, June 30, 8 p.m. at the Saratoga Music and Fine Arts Center. The concert is under the sponsorship of the Santa Clara County Council of Churches.

A free-will offering will be taken to support the two full-time ministries of the churches which provide spiritual guidance to both adults and juveniles in the Santa Clara County correctional facilities.

The PruneYard

An estatic Barbara Sprague was the winner of the Hawaiian holiday for two which was given away at Beyond the Reef on Saturday. Ed Fabbri, B of A manager who supervised the drawing, said Mrs. Sprague was crying tears of joy when she came forward to be acknowledged as winner.

The mother of five, Barbara and her husband, James, live in Sunnyvale and had little hope of such a vacation since their children range in age from 2 to 16.

Interestingly, Mrs. Sprague is a PruneYard shopper, even though residing in Sunnyvale. "My daughter loves the hamburgers at Garret and I enjoy Stevens Fabrics, Beyond the Reef and many other shops in the center." Kind of a nice testimonial for the PruneYard. Miss Hawaii was on hand for the drawing, which culminated a four day luau directed by Ward Noland, Sr., of Beyond the Reef.

Crowds of spectators were on hand Saturday for the NBC filming of the center which will be aired July 31 at 10 p.m. Phil Noll, who does special advertising for The Campbell Press, said he was filmed pushing a shopping cart through the supermarket.

Addie Raymond said she recently outfitted a wedding party down to the mother-in-law, mother, sister, etc., of the bride and the bride's going-away costume. "In fact, I almost expected an invitation to the wedding; I got to know the family so well." What fun!

News from Towers I: Bob Noble, of Allen Associates, and his wife, just returned from a month's tour of Europe, according to his neighbors at General Electric.

Youth films slated here

"Shakiest Fun in the West," and "Fluffy" are just two of the eight films being shown each Monday afternoon at the PruneYard Theater in Campbell.

Sponsored by the Peninsula Adult-Youth Film Council, the films are all rated for general audiences.

Cost of the series is $2.80, while tickets purchased individually are 75 cents for both children and adults.

For more information about the films contact the theater or Louise Jensen at 296-8937.

National Safe Boating Week begins Sunday

"National Safe Boating Week," July 1 through 7, is an annual observance to promote safety afloat.

However, the event represents only the start of what should be a season-long trend toward courteous, enjoyable boating, according to John E. Bennett, Director of the Department of Navigation and Ocean Development.

"Californians spend more time boating than any other boatmen in the nation," he said. Traditionally in this state, the months of July and August have the worst boating safety record."

"This year we have over 25,000 additional boats sharing our waterways," Bennett said. With the boating population growing every year, it is imperative for every boatman to enjoy his recreation in a safe, courteous manner. Boating safety can mean the difference between a summer to remember and one you'd like to forget."

Pro-Art Show at The PruneYard

The PruneYard will host it's second annual summer Pro-Art Show July 5 through 8.

Professional artists from the five western states will attend. These artists display in art galleries all over the country.

The modern trend in art is to bring art to the public. No longer does the artist paint alone in a garrett.

Gone are the days when the general public had to decorate their walls with prints of "Pinky," "Blue Boy," or "The End of the Trail." Now people of all income brackets can decorate their homes with original works of art and know that they have a "one of a kind."

Art and taste in art are very personal. It becomes even more personalized when the potential buyer has the opportunity to meet the artist in person and upon many occasions watch him perform art in action.

The public is invited to come and enjoy this festive art gala which will be held Thursday through Sunday, July 5, 6, 7 and 8 during the hours that the shops and restaurants are open.

Come make a day of it!

Critical need for foster homes cited

"Santa Clara County has a critical need for foster homes," stated Joan Beyrer, Foster Home Recruiter, County Department of Social Services. "We particularly need homes for teenagers 12 to 18 years of age."

There is a need for homes for children of all ages and especially for children of the same family group. "We'd like to be able to keep brothers and sisters together in the same foster home," remarked Mrs. Beyrer.

To become a foster parent a person must be licensed according to California law. The requirements of licensing are that the person must be 18 years of age or older. They can be single or married.

"It is possible for both foster parents to be employed," stated Mrs. Beyrer, "but for children under 12 we need mothers who are not working."

Foster parents are paid a grant for each child according to age, and all dental and medical expenses are paid by Medi-Cal. The grant is to take care of the child's needs such as food, clothing, shelter, transportation and education.

The licenses and tests are available at no charge. For any further information contact the Foster Home Department of Santa Clara County, Department of Social Services, at 299-2981.

SPORTS

CAMPBELL

Little League

by Doug Brooner

In Sunday's Major League action Moose Lodge moved a half game from first as Jeff Rymer pitched a one hitter to lead his team to a 5-3 win over Campbell Plaza.

Jeff was in complete control as he struck out 11 except for the fourth inning when Plaza's Dan Rumeo singled home two runs.

In the second game Mike Sullivan blasted a two run homer far in the afternoon sun in the seventh inning as Willow Glen Optimist edged Robins 4-2.

The game had gone into extra innings tied 2-2 as Sullivan allowed one hit while Robins Burney Glasauer gave up four hits.

Robins did threaten in the bottom of the seventh, after two were out, a walk, a Bob Cirivilleri double and a Dennis Cook infield single loaded the bases but winning pitcher John Mimusa got Charles Sapporito to ground out.

Campbell Lumber won their third in a row as they smashed Fontanetti's 8-2 behind the two hit pitching of Curt Aure.

A seven run outburst in the fifth proved the downfall of Fontanetti's. Curt Aure was also the "big gun" in the game going 3 for 4.

MINORS

In the minors scores were high and the action plenty as all games were decided in the final frame of action.

Campbell Optimist went two games ahead of the pack as they scored the winning run in the bottom of the sixth to edge first half champs, John White, 8-7.

It was base hits by Dray Miller, Tom Pennewell and Frank Scrivano which scored the winning run.

Optimist also cashed in on the long ball with three home runs by Dray Miller, Jeff Ewing and John Murphy. Murphy's blast was his 16th of the year, tying a Campbell Little League minor record.

David Martin was the big hitter for J.W. with two triples and a single.

THREE RUNS

Sir Speedy won their game in the last of the sixth over Campbell Press 9-8 by scoring three runs with key base hits by Dennis Diller, Jay Osberg and David Proffitt.

Diller, Proffitt, along with Glen Okazaka were the "big guns" for the game with three hits apiece.

San Jose Optimist had the scare of their lives as a four run sixth for J.J. & R. fell one short as Optimist won 10-9.

Big hitters for first place Optimist were Vance Garland and Tony D' Acquisto as they both parked homers. Joe Grammatico was the big ripper for J.J. & R.

In another wild and wooley game that went only four innings, Campbell Rotary squeaked by Round Table 11-10. The winning blow was delivered by Greg Haselhorst, his third hit of the game. Bob Buditus led the pizza boys going two for two.

TROOP 343

by Mike Kotowski

Five alert Boy Scouts of Troop 343 recently helped control a grass fire at Camden and Rivlet streets. Living up to the Scouting motto "Be Prepared", the scout's actions enabled the Fire Department to quickly extinguish the flames.

Eagle Scouts Jeff Lingreg and Brad St. Clar, both Junior Assistant Scoutmasters; Star Scout Craig Spink, Leadership Corp. Patrol Leader; Jim and Robby Dopp, both Life Scouts, all combined their efforts in fighting the fast spreading fire. Removing their shirts, the Scouts beat down flames until the fire department arrived.

Engine Company No. 22 answered the alarm. Captain Wayne Rist reported that the fire was under control when they arrived on the scene.

In a letter addressed to Mr. John Pugmire, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 343, San Jose Mayor Norman Mineta commended the actions of the Scouts. "Obviously," he wrote, "the quick work and aggressive action by the five members of Troop 343 were of significant assistance to the public safety of the City of San Jose." The Mayor also stated that the Firefighters were appreciative of the fact that the fire was kept small and that Captain Risk requested that these five boys be informed of the fire department's appreciation.

Beware of bogus utility men

Pacific Gas and Electric Company today cautioned householders not to admit strangers who claim to be company employees unless they show proper identification.

The warning was prompted by reports of incidents in a number of communities in which elderly women have been the victims of thieves who claimed to be PG&E "inspectors" or servicemen.

Cash has been stolen by the phony inspectors in some of the cases. In others, checks requested from the victims for supposed "services" have been raised to much higher amounts and then cashed.

All PG&E employees carry credentials --- billfold - type laminated identification cards which bear their names and photographs, the company stressed.

It said that anyone approached under suspicious circumstances by persons claiming to be PG&E employees should make an immediate report to the police department or sheriff's office and the company office serving the area.

DOUBLE TAKE

On a visit to a hospital emergency room last week a Campbell resident was startled by one sight in the waiting room.

While waiting to be seen the woman picked up a magazine to read and noticed the front page listing "What hospitals do that can cost you your life."

Deadline nears for industrial education County fair entries

That special building design done in school last year might qualify you for a blue ribbon at the Santa Clara County Fair this summer.

Deadline for the industrial education exhibits is June 29, according to William A. Staub, secretary-manager of the Santa Clara County Fair Association.

Contestants may come from any junior or senior high school, community college or vocational trade school in the county. All projects must be made in school under supervision within the year preceding the fair. Each may be entered for one award only.

Included in this department are such divisions as architectural drawing, drafting, electrical, industrial crafts, metals, plastics, woods and others.

The four entry groups in this field are; Group A, grades 7 and 8; Group B, grades 9 and 10; Group C, grades 11 and 12; and Group D, grades 10-14.

Premiums are awarded in all areas, ranging from 50 cents to $5. Projects are judged on the Danish system which allows more than one first, second or third award in each area.

Although applications are due by this Friday, actual entries are to be brought to the fairgrounds, at 344 Tully Rd., San Jose, on August 13 and 14.

Giants draft Campbell ballplayer

"You must give 100% all the time"

by Pat Safford

"If a kid really wants to play ball, I say don't get discouraged. If you strike out," said catcher George Hahn, "shrug it off and go back and get him (the pitcher) the next time. That's the difference between a major and a minor league player."

If anyone should know the difference it's George. The 17-year-old Campbell High School graduate was recently picked by the San Francisco Giants in the free agent draft.

Picked in the 27th round, George says he thinks he'll go on to play college baseball anyway, "unless I get a better offer."

The Hahn family is well known here. In addition to the outstanding playing of George and his twin brother Gordon (Gordy), an older brother Don is now playing centerfield for the New York Mets.

The local ballplayer was asked for suggestions to pass on to other local boys interested in a professional baseball career. "If they really want to excell in baseball they must practice, practice, practice," George emphasized. "You should really handle a baseball every day."

A catcher for the past nine years of play, George passed on these tips to would-be catcher. "First, never let the ball go back to the backstop, and second, never drop the ball." Team scouts watch prospective players during the warm-ups as well as actual play, George said, and those "drops" count against you. "You must give 100% all the time."

Just seven when he began play here (with the Campbell Little League Pee Wees), George then went on to play in the Moreland major leagues, the Campbell-Moreland Pony League and then the West Valley Colt League.

A member of the winning Campbell High School baseball team, George remembers his team capturing the Central Coast title in his junior year. For luck, "We all sat in the same seats on the way to the games," he laughed. That year they placed tops out of some 111 high school ball teams.

The common superstitions of ballplayers don't affect the Campbell youth, such as wearing the same socks or adjusting the baseball cap at just the right angle as some players do. He does admit to one "good luck" glove, however. During the entire game, including catching, he wears his batting glove. "I can't hit without it," he explained, "and I don't want to take it off for anything. We might lose."

Both George and Gordy have been granted four year scholarships at the University of Santa Clara and this summer they are taking part in the baseball clinic being held each morning on the campus for boys 9-14.

Playing short stop or pitcher as a youngster can be a valuable experience for boys who hope to break into the major leagues, George said. They are in the most active positions and must learn to handle the pressure. "The majors have a lot of pressure, he continued, and learning to handle it is important.

Although he now uses a professional catchers glove, George feels that younger catchers should use the "donut" or no break glove. "It teaches the young player to use both hands to get in front of the ball."

Good coaching has a lot to do with the success of players, George said, and used his Campbell High coach Gordon Hunze as an example.

"Hunze always has a wining attitude," he said, "and he has command of the whole team." Hahn feels his team was the most disciplined in the league last year. Infractions of the rules led to "running laps," (once around the field). In answer to the obvious question, George laughed, "Sure I did laps, plenty of laps."

When the 785 players were drafted recently George didn't know his name had been submitted. Edward Hahn, his father, did. "He didn't tell me because he didn't want me to worry," George explained. Giants scout Eddie Montague had spotted George at the local high school and recommended him to the San Francisco team.

In addition to his catching ability, George has an impressive batting average, .382 as a junior and .377 last year. Both Gordy and George have a baseball career foremost in their plans after college. "He has excellent speed and range," George said of his brother, "and he can hit the ball."

The most important point to playing good ball, George concluded, is attitude. "Don't think about that last strike out. In baseball it's all positive thinking."

The Hahn boys have plenty of that.

GETTING SOME POINTERS--George Hahn shows a small neighbor, Robby Desselle, 9, some pointers on catching. George was recently drafted by the San Francisco Giants.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT–Elizabeth Ellen Taylor, Campbell High School senior, was named winner of the Outstanding Student Award by the Campbell branch office of California Savings & Loan Company, in cooperation with the state-wide California Savings & Loan League. With the acquisition of the parcels needed for the rights-of-way and other costs, the project is expected to reach almost $1 million before completion.

In two other street matters on Monday, the Council referred the proposed traffic circulation element of the city's general plan to a joint study session of the Planning Commission and City Council on Monday, July 30, and scheduled a study session for Monday, July 16, with property owners, the Downtown Revitalization Committee and others interested in the downtown loop system.

The city was recently informed that an urban extension grant of $500,000 to help finance the loop system had been denied. Other factors involved in the loop plan include the relocation of the fire station and the formation of a parking district.

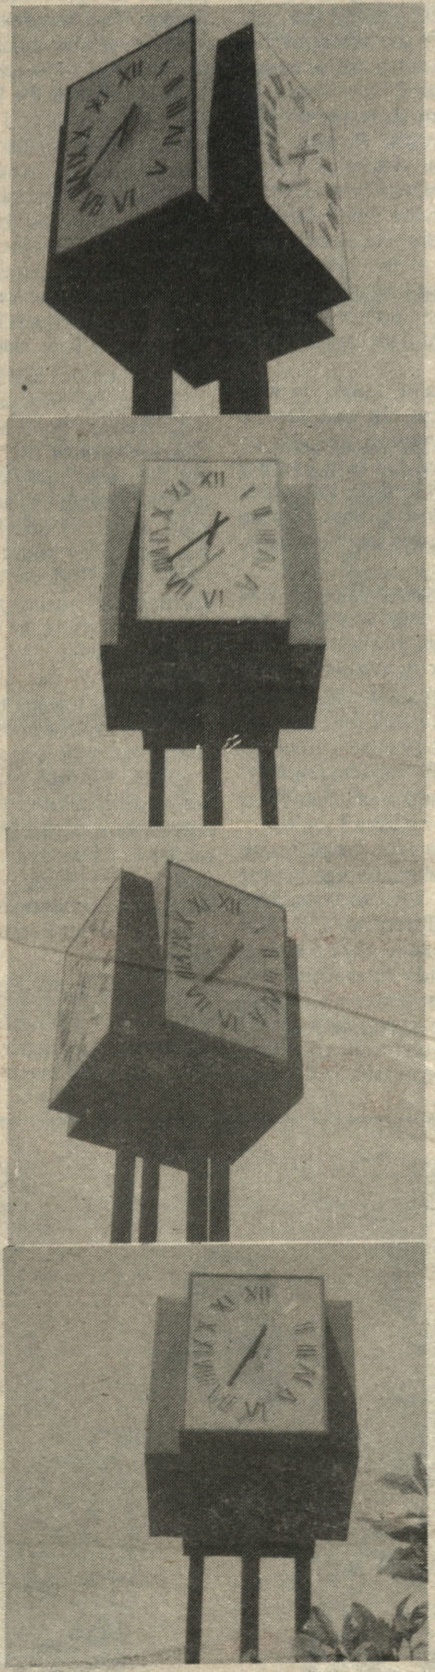
It's all -- in your point of view



If you've tried to set your watch by the clock in front of the Campbell City Hall in recent weeks....you probably set it wrong. The four-faced clock, in this case clocks, are all powered by separate mechanisms and no two told the same time....at least until this week. According to city hall personnel, the Oakland firm which installed the clock made a trip down to readjust it....again. Prior to the readjustment, the difference in time, between sides, was as much as four minutes. Now they hardly differ at all.

TREAD WEAR EXPECTANCY

Because of variable driving habits and road conditions under which tires are used, it is impractical for Montgomery Ward, and conceivably misleading to our customers, to guarantee any specific number of months or miles of tread wear. We can, however, indicate the wear potential we have built into our tires in terms of service in normal family use. If a Riverside tire wears down to the tread wear indicators during the Tread Wear Expectancy, Montgomery Ward will upon presentation of the tire and evidence of date of purchase replace the tire for the then current price less the following dollar allowance:

Tread Wear Expectancy	Tread Wearout Allowance
40,000 miles	Prorated on Miles Driven
45 month	$13.00
40 month	10.00
39 month	8.00
36 month	6.00
33 month	5.00
30 month	4.00
24 month	3.00
18 month	2.00

Tread Wear Expectancy offer does not apply to tires used commercially.
